

- 2nd Convention (1926) - Held in Detroit
 1. Santa Barbara earthquake that year - the association sent representatives with food for the victims
 2. It was decided then that the Yees in New York, Sacramento and Columbus should form branches.
 3. The branches should support headquarters by sending in 20% of all donations so as to strengthen headquarters